ABOUT GREAT PLAINS IDEA

The Great Plains Interactive Distance Education Alliance (IDEA) is a consortium of distinguished, accredited universities offering online-exclusive graduate programs. Each university brings a unique strength in faculty and curriculum to the multi-institution program. Students choose a home university where they apply, are admitted, register for courses, and receive their degree. Online courses are taught by leading instructors in each discipline from multiple universities. Students pay one common price per credit hour, regardless of which university grants their degree. Other participating universities include: Kansas State, Missouri, Montana State, Nebraska, North Dakota State, Oklahoma State, and South Dakota State.

ABOUT THE FAMILY FINANCIAL PLANNING PROGRAM

Today’s economic climate offers unique challenges to families and individuals trying to reach financial goals. Financial planners are seen as critical partners in helping prepare families for a stronger financial future. Now you can earn an advanced degree in Financial Planning from one of America’s most respected universities, while in a convenient online setting.

The Great Plains IDEA online graduate program is registered by the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) Board of Standards. Upon completion of the Great Plains IDEA Family Financial Planning Masters or certificate program, you will have completed your comprehensive educational requirement. To obtain the credential, you will then study to pass the CFP Certification Examination, satisfy a work experience requirement and agree to abide by the CFP Board code of ethical conduct. Completion of the graduate program does not guarantee a student will pass the CFP exam – only that students receive the education required to take the exam. For complete details on becoming a CFP®, see http://www.cfp.net/become.

Completion of the Financial and Housing Counseling (FHC) certificate will prepare you to sit for the Accredited Financial Counselor (AFC) examination offered by the Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education (AFCPE). For more information about the AFCPE certification process, see http://www.afcpe.org/certification/programs/.
